Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 73

Common-tone modulation, pivot chords, guide-tone motion, and chromatic-mediant key changes

9 MODULES | 652 TONES | SECTION X BEGINS

Section X shifts from new scale systems to advanced integration. Level 73 trains the ear and hand to move between tonal centers without losing voice-leading, rhythm, or phrase identity. Some changes use a diatonic pivot chord; others use one retained pitch or a direct chromatic-mediant shift.

1. Retain a common tone

Hold one pitch while the surrounding chord changes its function. Name the old and new role.

2. Reinterpret a pivot chord

Hear one chord as belonging to both keys, then use the destination dominant to confirm the new tonic.

3. Move the guide tones

Keep the smoothest internal voices audible even when the bass root, register, or arpeggio route changes.

Three modulation mechanisms

PIVOT-CHORD MODULATION
Cmaj7 - Am7 - D7 - Gmaj7
          ^ vi in C / ii in G

COMMON-TONE CHROMATIC MEDIANT
Cmaj7  ->  Emaj7     common tones E and B
Cmaj7  ->  Abmaj7    common tones C and G

GUIDE-TONE CONFIRMATION
C -> G: B-C-C-B and E-E-F#-F#
The new tonic is confirmed by the destination dominant and voice motion.

Written workload

Module	Tones
A - common-tone cells	64
B - pivot routes	96
C - guide lines	48
D - chromatic mediants	72
E - motif transport	96
F - pivot bridges	60
G - 8-bar studies	128
H - 16-bar capstone	64
I - recovery cards	24
TOTAL	652

Session protocol

Choose one common-tone cell, one pivot route, and one modulation study. Play the source key long enough to establish it, announce the pivot or common tone, then confirm the destination with its dominant or tonic. Do not increase tempo until the key-center change is audible without accompaniment.

MODULATION TEST Remove the source chord. If the destination still sounds like home after two bars, the modulation was confirmed.

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 73

Modulation atlas: shared tones, pivot chords, and guide-tone destinations

SOURCE -> BRIDGE -> DOMINANT -> DESTINATION

A MODULATION IS A FUNCTIONAL REINTERPRETATION, NOT MERELY A NEW FRETBOARD POSITION

Common-tone reinterpretation matrix

Source / destination	Shared pitch or pivot	Old function	New function	Confirmation
Cmaj7 -> Am7	E	3 of Cmaj7	5 of Am7	Am cadence or E7-Am
Cmaj7 -> Em7	B	7 of Cmaj7	5 of Em7	B7-Em
Cmaj7 -> Emaj7	E and B	3 / 7	R / 5	B7-E
Cmaj7 -> Abmaj7	C and G	R / 5	3 / 7	Eb7-Ab
Am7 -> C#m7	E	5 of Am7	b3 of C#m7	G#7-C#m
Em7 -> G#m7	B	5 of Em7	b3 of G#m7	D#7-G#m

Pivot-chord modulation routes

Route	Pivot chord	Source role	Destination role	Destination dominant
C -> G	Am7	vi	ii	D7
C -> D	Em7	iii	ii	A7
C -> F	Dm7	ii	vi	C7
Am -> C	Dm7	iv	ii	G7
Am -> Em	Cmaj7	III	VI	B7
G -> Em	Am7	ii	iv	B7

VOICE-LEADING RULE Prefer semitone or common-tone motion inside the chord while the bass and harmonic function change.

DIRECT-MODULATION RULE For chromatic mediants, retain the common pitch, then confirm the destination with IV-V-I or V-I.

Module B - four-chord pivot-modulation routes

3 ROUTES | 48 TONES

ESTABLISH SOURCE -> REINTERPRET PIVOT -> PLAY NEW DOMINANT -> CONFIRM TONIC

Each chord receives a four-tone arpeggio. Hold the pivot chord for one extra beat during the first pass, but keep the bar count unchanged. A second pass removes the extra emphasis and relies on harmony alone.

Ear test: record only the two guide voices without roots. Identify where the destination key becomes unavoidable. If the key change is unclear, lengthen the destination dominant or add the destination tonic bass note only.

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 73

Module D - common-tone chromatic-mediant shifts

3 CELLS | 36 TONES

SOURCE ARPEGGIO -> COMMON TONE THROUGH FOUR REGISTERS -> DESTINATION ARPEGGIO

No diatonic pivot chord is used. The retained pitch supplies continuity while the other chord tones change. After the printed cell, confirm the destination with its V-I cadence.

Cmaj7 -> Emaj7

Two common tones are available: E and B. The bridge uses E through four registers.

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 73

Module G - eight-bar key-center study

STUDY 2 - C MAJOR TO D MAJOR VIA EM7 | 32 TONES

FOUR CHORD TONES PER BAR; THE DESTINATION KEY MUST BE CONFIRMED FOR AT LEAST THREE BARS

Em7 changes from iii in C to ii in D. A7 supplies the new dominant and Dmaj7 is confirmed twice.

Bars 1-4: Cmaj7 | Am7 | Cmaj7 | Em7

Module H - sixteen-bar circle-of-fifths modulation capstone

BARS 1-8 | 32 TONES

C -> G -> D -> A -> E | PIVOT CHORD, DOMINANT, DESTINATION TONIC

Every four-bar block begins with the current tonic, reinterprets a shared diatonic chord, introduces the dominant of the next key, and confirms the new tonic. Announce the destination key on beat 4 of the pivot chord.

Bars 1-4: Cmaj7 | Am7 | D7 | Gmaj7

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 73

Module I - modulation recovery cards, ear training, and improvisation ladder

12 CARDS | 24 TONES

KEEP THE PULSE, IDENTIFY THE ACTIVE CHORD, AND RESOLVE BEFORE THE NEXT HARMONIC LANDMARK

The printed weak note is not necessarily unusable; it is unstable in the stated context. Resolve to the named target without stopping the form. Then repeat the pair in another register.

Cmaj7: D -> E

9 -> 3

Am7: B -> C

9 -> b3

D7: Eb -> D

b9 -> root

Gmaj7: F -> F#

b7 -> 7

Em7: F -> G

b2 -> b3

A7: C -> C#

b3 -> 3

Dmaj7: F -> F#

b3 -> 3

C7: B -> Bb

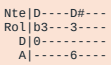
M7 -> b7

Fmaj7: Gb -> F

b9 -> root

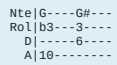
B7: D -> D#

b3 -> 3



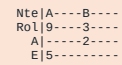
Emaj7: G -> G#

b3 -> 3



G7: A -> B

9 -> 3



Three-pass improvisation ladder

1. Common tones only. 2. Pivot chord plus destination dominant. 3. Free phrase that retains one motif and confirms the new key for at least two bars.

Ear-training assignments

Sing the retained tone, identify the pivot chord in both keys, and name the bar where the destination tonic becomes stable. Record before checking the score.

NEXT: ODD GROUPINGS AND POLYRHYTHMIC ACCENT CYCLES

ADVANCE ONLY WHEN THE KEY CHANGE IS AUDIBLE WITHOUT A VISUAL FRETBOARD CUE

Ten-phase practice progression

- [ ] 1. Common-tone cells
- [ ] 2. Pivot routes
- [ ] 3. Guide-tone lines
- [ ] 4. Chromatic mediants
- [ ] 5. Motif transport
- [ ] 6. Pivot bridges
- [ ] 7. Four eight-bar studies
- [ ] 8. Sixteen-bar capstone
- [ ] 9. Recovery cards
- [ ] 10. Free modulation solo

Error diagnosis

KEY CHANGE TOO WEAK	lengthen the destination dominant and tonic
PIVOT SOUNDS RANDOM	state both Roman-numeral functions before playing
COMMON TONE LOST	sustain or repeat it through the barline
MELODY SOUNDS RESTARTED	preserve motif rhythm and contour
VOICE LEAP TOO LARGE	choose another octave or inversion
SOURCE KEY RETURNS	avoid source-only tones after destination V-I

Mastery gate before Level 74

- [ ] Perform all eight common-tone cells and name the retained note in both chords.
- [ ] Play all six pivot routes and both guide voices without accompaniment.
- [ ] Complete all six chromatic-mediant cells and confirm the destination with V-I.
- [ ] Transpose all six motifs without changing rhythm or scale-degree contour.
- [ ] Perform the four eight-bar studies and the sixteen-bar capstone from memory.
- [ ] Recover from all twelve weak-note cards without stopping the form.
- [ ] Record one related-key and one chromatic-mediant modulation on two separate days.

Practice log

Date	Route / module	Pivot or common tone	BPM	Destination clear?	Weak bar / voice	Next target

NEXT Level 74 develops odd rhythmic groupings, cross-bar accent cycles, metric displacement, and polyrhythmic phrase control.
