Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 74

Odd rhythmic groupings, cross-bar accent cycles, metric displacement, and polyrhythmic phrase control

8 MODULES | 1168 NOTATED CONTACTS

Level 73 changed key centers while preserving phrase identity. Level 74 changes the perceived rhythmic center while preserving the meter, barline, harmony, and pulse. The player must distinguish a grouping from a meter change, an accent from an extra attack, and a displaced phrase from a lost beat.

1. Keep the meter fixed

A 3-, 5-, or 7-note grouping can cross barlines while the 4/4 measure remains unchanged.

2. Move the accent, not the clock

The accent cycle may drift through every sixteenth slot. The quarter-note pulse must remain steady.

3. Separate the voices

Polyrhythmic cells assign different pulses to bass and upper voices without adding or removing time.

Core arithmetic: 16 sixteenth notes per 4/4 bar

GROUP OF 3:  LCM(16,3) = 48 slots  = 3 bars  = 16 groups
GROUP OF 5:  LCM(16,5) = 80 slots  = 5 bars  = 16 groups
GROUP OF 7:  LCM(16,7) = 112 slots = 7 bars  = 16 groups

The barline stays fixed. The accent returns to beat 1 only after the full cycle.

METRIC DISPLACEMENT:
same notes + same rhythm + different starting subdivision

POLYRHYTHM:
two simultaneous pulse organizations sharing one time span

Written workload

Module	Contacts
A - accent cycles	240
B - displacement	64
C - odd subdivisions	192
D - polyrhythms	108
E - odd meters	108
F - harmonic cycles	192
G - call/response	64
H - capstone	200
TOTAL	1168

Session protocol

Clap and count first. Next play one muted string. Then play one note. Add the pitch cell only after the accent cycle is stable. During polyrhythms, isolate each voice before combining them. A wrong note may be repaired inside the form; a lost pulse requires a restart.

ACCENT RULE An accent changes volume or articulation. It does not create another attack.

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 74

Grouping, subdivision, displacement, and polyrhythm reference atlas

GROUPING IS NOT METER

FOUR DIFFERENT RHYTHMIC QUESTIONS REQUIRE FOUR DIFFERENT ANSWERS

Concept	What changes	What remains fixed	Repair cue
Odd grouping	accent spacing: 3, 5, or 7	4/4 bar and sixteenth grid	tap quarters while accents drift
Odd subdivision	notes per beat: 5 or 7	quarter-note beat length	return to one beat and count evenly
Metric displacement	phrase onset	phrase notes and duration	speak the new starting slot
Polyrhythm	simultaneous pulse layers	shared total time span	play each voice alone, then combine
Odd meter	number/grouping of beats	subdivision inside each beat	count the large groups aloud

Sixteenth-grid labels

Count|1--e--&--a--2--e--&--a--3--e--&--a--4--e--&--a--|
Hand |D--U--D--U--D--U--D--U--D--U--D--U--D--U--D--U--|
Accent marks sit above existing attacks; the D/U path does not restart.

Full-cycle return points

Group	Bars	Sixteenth slots	Accents
3	3	48	16
5	5	80	16
7	7	112	16

Body pulse

Keep the foot on quarter notes in 4/4. In 5/4 and 7/8, move the body pulse to the printed large grouping. The physical pulse is the reference against which displacement is heard.

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 74

Module A1 - three-note accent cycle across three bars

48 CONTACTS | 16 ACCENTS

ACCENT EVERY 3 SIXTEENTHS; DO NOT RESTART AT THE BARLINE

Cell route: A3(C) - D2(E) - G0(G). Repeat the 3-note cell continuously. Accent the first note of every cell. The pitch cell and accent cycle return to beat 1 together after 3 complete bars.

Module B - metric displacement from beat 1 through the a of beat 1

4 CELLS | 32 TONES

SAME EIGHT-NOTE MOTIF; ONSET MOVES ONE SIXTEENTH AT A TIME

Motif: C-E-G-B-A-G-E-D. Route: A3(C) - D2(E) - G0(G) - G4(B) - G2(A) - G0(G) - D2(E) - D0(D). The pitch order, sixteenth-note rate, pick cycle, and articulation remain unchanged. Only the starting subdivision moves.

Record all four cells at one tempo. The motif should remain recognizable even though its relationship to the downbeat changes.

Guitar Exercises - Section X, Level 74

Module B - cross-bar metric displacement from beat 4

4 CELLS | 32 TONES

THE PHRASE MAY CROSS THE BARLINE; THE BARLINE DOES NOT MOVE

The same motif begins on beat 4, e of 4, & of 4, or a of 4. Count the second bar aloud before playing. The phrase may continue into bar 2, but the next bar-one remains in its original location.

B5 - beat 4

Count|1--e--&--a--2--e--&--a--3--e--&--a--4--e--&--a--|1--e--&--a--2--e--&--a--3--e--&--a--4--e--&--a--|
Nte  |-----------------------------------C--E--G--B--|A--G--E--D-----------------------------------|

Count|1--e--&--a--2--e--&--a--3--e--&--a--4--e--&--a--|1--e--&--a--2--e--&--a--3--e--&--a--4--e--&--a--|

CROSSING The note sequence continues through the barline.

Failure sign: the player delays bar 2 to make room for the motif. Repair by clapping the barline while speaking the note order.

Module C - quintuplet subdivision and accent rotation

70 TONES

FIVE EQUAL NOTES INSIDE ONE QUARTER-NOTE BEAT

Count 1-2-3-4-5 evenly inside each metronome beat. Do not squeeze the fifth note or delay the next downbeat. First use one A note, then the five-note Cmaj9 cell C-E-G-B-D.

122 TONES

SEVEN EQUAL NOTES PER BEAT; THEN MOVE BETWEEN 4, 5, 6, AND 7

Use the C-major scale cell C-D-E-F-G-A-B for septuplets. The note sequence fits one beat exactly. The accent-rotation drill cycles the emphasized note through all seven positions.

C4 - single-note septuplets

Beat 2 - 5 notes: C E G B D
Beat 3 - 6 notes: C D E G A B
Beat 4 - 7 notes: C D E F G A B

Total: 4 + 5 + 6 + 7 = 22 tones

Keep the quarter-note pulse unchanged. The right hand changes subdivision rate, not tempo.

Practice the rate ladder in both directions: 4-5-6-7 and 7-6-5-4. Stop if the next downbeat drifts.

Module E - 7/8 grouped three ways

4 STUDIES | 28 CONTACTS

SEVEN EIGHTH NOTES PER BAR; ACCENTS DEFINE 2+2+3, 3+2+2, OR 2+3+2

Use one continuous eighth-note stream. The body pulse follows the large groups. Do not convert 7/8 into a shortened 4/4 bar by guessing the final beat.

Module F - seven-note grouping across a four-bar cadence

64 TONES

ACCENT EVERY 7 SIXTEENTHS OVER | Cmaj7 | Dm7 | G7 | Cmaj7 |

Each bar restarts its mode-relative seven-note route from the chord root. The accent cycle continues globally. Accent positions therefore separate from the scale root and from the barline.

F3 - seven-note scale cells under one continuous accent cycle

Bar 1 Cmaj7|1--e--&--a--2--e--&--a--3--e--&--a--4--e--&--a--|

Target test

Replay the exercise while accenting beat 1 in addition to the seven-note cycle. The two accent systems must remain distinguishable: beat 1 marks form; the moving accent marks grouping.

Module G - call-and-response through metric displacement

8 PAIRS | 64 TONES

QUESTION ON QUARTER NOTES; ANSWER AS FOUR SIXTEENTHS FROM A NEW STARTING SLOT

Question notes: C-E-G-B on beats 1-4 of bar 1. Answer notes: A-G-E-D in bar 2. The answer onset moves through the first eight sixteenth slots of bar 2 while the question remains unchanged.

G1 - answer starts on 1 of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|A--G--E--D---------------------------------------|

G2 - answer starts on e of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|---A--G--E--D-----------------------------------|

G3 - answer starts on & of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|------A--G--E--D-------------------------------|

G4 - answer starts on a of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|---------A--G--E--D-----------------------------|

G5 - answer starts on 2 of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|------------A--G--E--D--------------------------|

G6 - answer starts on e of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|--------------A--G--E--D----------------------|

G7 - answer starts on & of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|-----------------A--G--E--D-------------------|

G8 - answer starts on a of bar 2

Q|C-----E-----G-----B-----|
A|--------------------A--G--E--D-----------------|

Preserve the question/answer dynamic shape. The answer may be displaced, but it must still sound like a response rather than an unrelated fill.

Module H - sixteen-bar advanced-rhythm capstone architecture

200 TONES

FOUR SECTIONS; EACH CHANGES RHYTHMIC ORGANIZATION WITHOUT LOSING THE FORM

Bars	Harmony	Rhythmic task	Contacts
1-3	Cmaj7 | Am7 | Dm7	group-of-3 sixteenth cycle; full 3-bar return	48
4-8	G7 | Cmaj7 | Am7 | Dm7 | G7	group-of-5 sixteenth cycle; full 5-bar return	80
9-12	Cmaj7 | Am7 | Dm7 | G7	eight-note motif displaced by 0, 1, 2, then 3 sixteenths	32
13-16	Cmaj7 | Am7 | Dm7 | G7	3:2 bass/upper-voice polyrhythm	40

Performance passes

1. Clap accents only. 2. Muted-string attack stream. 3. Written pitches. 4. Add chord changes.
5. Record the complete form without stopping.

Section-transition cues

Say "three," "five," "shift," and "three-over-two" during beat 4 before the new section. Do not pause or add a count-in between sections.

Capstone close

After bar 16, play one whole-note Cmaj7 and stop. The final chord confirms that the rhythmic layering never changed the larger tonal destination. If the close arrives early or late, isolate bars 13-16.

Practice progression, error diagnosis, and advancement

RHYTHM FIRST | HARMONY SECOND

REPAIR THE EARLIEST RHYTHMIC LAYER THAT FAILED

Ten-phase progression

1. Clap full group-of-3 cycle.
2. Clap full group-of-5 cycle.
3. Clap full group-of-7 cycle.
4. Add pitch cells without changing accents.
5. Complete eight metric displacements.
6. Play quintuplet and septuplet cells.
7. Separate and combine 3:2 voices.
8. Separate and combine 4:3 voices.
9. Perform 5/4 and 7/8 studies.
10. Record the sixteen-bar capstone.

Error diagnosis

ACCENT ADDS A NOTE	return to even attacks and change volume only
BARLINE MOVES	tap quarters and speak bar numbers
GROUP RESTARTS	continue global event count across the barline
QUINTUPLET RUSHES	practice one beat and land the next click
SEPTUPLET COLLAPSES	reduce tempo and accent only note 1
POLYRHYTHM MERGES	play each voice alone, then alternate
ODD METER FEELS SHORT	count large groups, not imaginary 4/4
DISPLACED MOTIF LOST	sing the motif before moving its onset

Advancement rules

Add 2 BPM after three clean complete cycles, not after one clean bar. For 5- and 7-group cycles, shorten to two bars only for diagnosis, then return to the full cycle. Increase quintuplet or septuplet tempo only when the next quarter-note click remains exact.

Physical and musical boundary

Odd rhythm is not permission to tense the picking hand or over-accent every group. Use a small dynamic difference, preserve note length, and stop if the subdivision causes gripping or breath-holding.

Mastery gate, completion audit, practice log, and next level

ADVANCE AFTER TWO CLEAN DAYS

THE PLAYER MUST HEAR THE GROUPING WITHOUT LOSING THE METER

Mastery gate

- ☐ Complete the full 3-, 5-, and 7-group accent cycles without restarting at a barline.
- ☐ Perform all eight metric-displacement cells with the motif identity intact.
- ☐ Play quintuplets and septuplets evenly and complete the 4-5-6-7 rate ladder.
- ☐ Perform all 3:2 and 4:3 cells with distinct lower and upper voices.
- ☐ Play all four 5/4 studies and all four 7/8 studies with the announced grouping.
- ☐ Apply 3-, 5-, and 7-group accents through the printed chord progressions.
- ☐ Complete all eight displaced call-and-response pairs.
- ☐ Perform the sixteen-bar capstone from memory on two separate days.

Completion audit

- ☐ 3-cycle
- ☐ 5-cycle
- ☐ 7-cycle
- ☐ 8 displacements
- ☐ quintuplets
- ☐ septuplets
- ☐ 3:2
- ☐ 4:3
- ☐ 5/4
- ☐ 7/8
- ☐ harmonic cycles
- ☐ capstone
